

NEWS & INSIGHTS

BIRMINGHAM BUSINESS JOURNAL NAMES RACHELLE SANCHEZ A 2024 NEXTGEN BHM: LAW HONOREE

April 29, 2024

The Birmingham Business Journal has tapped Lightfoot, Franklin & White LLC partner Rachelle E. Sanchez for its 2024 NextGen BHM: Law list. This annual ranking celebrates up-and-coming Birmingham-area lawyers under 40 who are making their mark in their field. Selections are determined based on contributions to their firms, tangible results in their practice areas and involvement in the community, among other factors.

"We are proud of Rachelle for this well-deserved recognition," said Lightfoot's managing partner Melody Eagan. "As one of our newer partners, her hard work and commitment to client service exemplifies the Lightfoot Way and we look forward to her continued contributions and the impact she will have on our firm."

Sanchez is a former criminal prosecutor who defends clients in a variety of cases in state and federal courts throughout the country. She regularly represents clients in cases involving wrongful death, product liability, catastrophic injury, automotive litigation, healthcare and medical malpractice.