THREE LIGHTFOOT LAWYERS NAMED TO THE NATIONAL BLACK LAWYERS 'TOP 40 UNDER 40' LIST FOR ALABAMA

October 30, 2019

Lightfoot, Franklin & White LLC attorneys Amaobi J. Enyinnia, Amber N. Hall and Bridget E. Harris have been selected as three of The National Black Lawyers "Top 40 Under 40" Lawyers for Alabama. The recognition is given to a select group of lawyers for their professional achievements, including superior qualifications, leadership skills and case results.

"We are proud to see our younger lawyers honored by this respected, national organization," said Melody Eagan, Lightfoot's managing partner. "The whole firm congratulates Amaobi, Amber and Bridget on this outstanding, well-deserved recognition."

Membership into the "Top 40 Under 40" Lawyers is by invitation only and is limited to attorneys in each state or region who have demonstrated excellence and have achieved outstanding results in their careers in either civil, plaintiff or criminal defense law. The selection process for this elite honor is based on a multi-phase process which includes peer nominations and third-party research. The result is a credible and comprehensive list of the most outstanding trial lawyers in the country.

The National Black Lawyers is a professional and educational organization comprised of the nation's premier African American attorneys.
